HAWAII TO HAVE ONLY TWO NATIONAL DELEGATES

Signs On Mainland Point To Return of Republican Party On Tidal Wave

Pleasant and unpleasant news on Ha waii affairs over which Washington officially or politically has more or les absolute say, was brought here yesterday, when Robert W. Shingle, former chairman of the Republican territorial central committee, returned to Hono lulu, a passenger on the Matsonia.

For one thing there is no hope of the Democrats deciding not to earry out their present tariff intentions, says Mr. Shingle; for another, Hawaii will have only two delegates to the national convention, in place of six, the former number.

The $1,325,000 federal building bill should be passed very soon; and the Pearl Harbor drydock question has now been settled, favorable to the dawn been settled, favorable to the Hawai ian Drerging company.

This, in substance, is the newsplensast and unpleasant—which Mr. Slöugle brought back with him.

He went to Washington principally on the postoffice site matter, and regarding it he said last night:

"The bill is now on the unanimous consent" calendar of the bouse and should be taken up soon. It has passed the senate. The measure caries an appropriation of $1,325,000, $1,000,000 of waich is for the building itself.

brown and yellow plantation sugars has gradually consed to exist. This would not prevent the great grocery dealers of the country and the great confectioners, preserve makers, ment packers and other large users of sugare from buying in advance such sugars as they might need for months to come, just as the great merchants of the fiftien bought the Louisiana crop. Still, we must recognize a serious change in that respect in the methods of modern trade, as well as in the matter of the tastes of the consumers. Merchants dealing regularly in any particular commodity if ample capital and resourceful, wil buy largely of staple goods when, in their opinion, these goods are below a normal value, but the average mer lowing year, at the same time there was a constant deterioration, and that decirous of only buying just enough to the best plan and the most economical

These data would indicate that we shall have an inadequate supply of sugar for 1915 and that prices must necessarily cone comparatively high. Of course the prolonged duration or the carly termination of the war would have quite a determining effect in all this matter, but much of the harm to the beet crop has already been done, and much harm to the future of the leet erop is the necessary sequence of the war conditions that are now prevailing and that we may expect to prevailing and that we may expect to prevailing and that we may expect to prevail during the months to come.

E. D. Tenney, Home From Coast. Careless Handling of Automatic Gun By National Guardsman Causes Painful Wound

(From Wednesday Advertiser.) At the Queen's Hospital last night it was reported that Lizzie Kenho, the eleven-year-old Hawaiian girl who was shot through the arm on Sanday was getting along nicely and appeared to. be in no danger of losing the limb.

Carelessness in the handling of a Colt automatic gun by a detachment of the Hawaiian National Guard on the Kakaako range caused the piece to be discharged, the bullet wounding the little girl.

It is reported that the bone of the arm was shuttered. The bullet in passing out, grazed the child's side. The girl is the adopted daughter of Remos Lukapu, a sergeaut of the quartermaster corps of the actional guard, and lives with her parents at the rifle range. While the target was being adjusted the gun was pointed off the range, and when a member of the gun detachment seated himself in the saidle and grasped the pistel grip the piece was aischarged, wounding the child, who stood alongside the firing point.

Lieut. P. M. Smoot of the national geard, who was lu charge of the firing squad, took the girl to the army dispensary in the immigration station in his automobile for first aid treatment. From there she was removed to the Queen's Hospital,
